The staff would like to enlarge the DVD shelving area since the collection is growing and gets a lot of use. They will also be moving the database computers to a more suitable location.

The Library’s Annual Report has been accepted by the Mid-Hudson Library system. In addition the Library System made a poster of the people who participated in the “Real People, Real Dollars” campaign, including Kent library patron, Jane Ryan.

The Library has been having problems with our SAM software which is the computer software which controls our public use computers and their ability to print and collect money for printing. There have been numerous complaints from patrons. A new system, Envisionware, has been in use for several months by the Catskill library. Mahopac Library recently switched to Envisionware. Brewster, Patterson and Cold Spring Libraries are also considering the switch. If our Library were to switch now we would be entitled to a reduced price. It also has a lower annual fee. The staff will visit the Mahopac Library to see it in actual use. Carol requested the Board approve the necessary funding to acquire the new software if she and the staff were satisfied with what they learn about Envisionware at the Mahopac Library.

Chris Marrone has made some progress in requesting that Putnam County busses come into the Kent government complex. When the change in the route is approved, the Library will advertise on its website and send a press release to local newspapers. It will give residents access not only to the library but also Town Hall and polling places. The Library will again host a summer lunch program and bus service would be helpful to those who participate.

The Kent Winter festival was a success despite the warm weather. The “people counters” counted 919 people who came through our doors on February 25th as part of the Winter festival.

There will be a workshop on “Essential Trustee Duties and Responsibilities” on April 8th at the Mid-Hudson Library System.

The air handler which provides both heating and cooling for the downstairs area is no longer working. The lower area of the library is too cool to be comfortable. The unit will have to be replaced. Carol will get bids and check on the terms of the warranty.
