It's Cool at the Library

July may be almost over, but there's lots of summer left. Are you taking a trip? Stop by the library to borrow some books on CD to make the long car rides short. Fill up your tablet, smartphone or e-reader with free online magazines, or free e-books and audiobooks from Overdrive and Hoopla.

I have fond memories of taking my children to the library to cool off on hot summer days, and am pleased to say that our air conditioning is working beautifully. If your electricity gets knocked out by a summer thunderstorm, remember that the Kent Library has a generator, and you can come to recharge your devices, and yourself, in a comfortable environment.

Treat yourself to a trip to a local museum. The Friends of Kent Library have donated passes to 14 local museums, from the Danbury Railway Museum to the Guggenheim, which you can borrow for free.

There are still lots of summer programs coming up, including:

Teacher Appreciation Days and Book Cellar Sales August 12, September 9, and October 14

The Friends of Kent Library will be holding TEACHER APPRECIATION DAYS in the Book Cellar of the Kent Public Library on Saturdays, August 12, September 9, and October 14 from 10am to 2:30pm, in conjunction with their Book Cellar Sales.

On these days, teachers who show a teacher I.D. can fill a bag or bags with books for $2.00 each bag.

Start your school year prepared! Begin a classroom library, or stock up on books you can give to your students. Don't forget to pick out a few books you'll enjoy as well.

Teachers give so much to our community. The Friends of the Library want to give something back to them!
